DEFINITIONS. The word “Buyer” wherever used herein, shall mean Toyota Tsusho NEXTY Electronics America, Inc. The party with whom Buyer places the Purchase Order is referred to as “Seller.” The goods or services covered by the Purchase Order are referred to as the “Products.” The term “Purchase Order” refers to and includes the Buyer’s Purchase Order form which is incorporated herein by reference, these General Terms and Conditions, and any other document(s) specifically made a part of the Purchase Order by Buyer, also collectively referred to as the “Contract.” “Buyer’s Plant” means the plant or facility of Buyer specified in the Purchase Order. “End User” means the actual end user of the Products.

NO MODIFICATIONS. These terms and conditions supersede any conflicting terms or conditions received from Seller. Any Seller generated document which contains terms additional to or inconsistent with the terms of the Purchase Order, or a rejection of any term of the Purchase Order, shall be deemed to be a counter offer to Buyer and shall not be binding upon Buyer unless specifically accepted in writing by an authorized representative of Buyer, notwithstanding any course of performance or contrary provision of the Uniform Commercial Code. Acceptance of the Purchase Order is expressly limited to its terms and this clause shall constitute a specific objection to any term not specifically accepted by Buyer.

MODE. Mode of Shipment will be as designated by Buyer on the Buyer’s Purchase Order. Unless otherwise specified, if an Incoterm is used in Buyer’s Purchase Order, Incoterms 2020 shall apply.

PRICING. Pricing is based on the original quotation by Seller to Buyer. Pricing includes all government tariffs, duties, assessments, surcharges and other levies now existing and applicable, and any increase that may hereafter be imposed on the Products. Transferable credits or benefits associated with Parts purchased, including trade credits, export credits, or rights to the refund of duties, taxes, or fees, belong to Buyer unless otherwise prohibited by applicable law. Seller will provide Buyer with all information and records relating to the Parts necessary for Buyer to: (1) receive these benefits, credits, and rights; (2) fulfill any customs obligations, origin marking or labeling requirements, and certification or local content reporting requirements; (3) claim preferential duty treatment under applicable trade preference regimes, and (4) participate in any duty deferral or free trade zone programs of the country of import. Seller will obtain all export licenses and authorizations and pay all export taxes, duties, and fees unless otherwise stated in the Contract, in which case Seller will provide all information and records necessary to enable Buyer to obtain those export licenses or authorizations.

PACKAGING. Standard Export Packaging unless otherwise specified in a writing executed by Buyer. Seaworthy packing is required for Products undergoing maritime shipping. All packaging, crating and/or other shipping materials, including dunnage, blocking and bracing, and/or shipping pallets shall comply with ISPM 15 Solid Wood Packaging Requirements and any region-specific requirements at the point of delivery, for all modes of transport. Buyer’s Purchase Order number must appear on the packaging and packing slip. All Hazardous Materials shall be transported in accordance with applicable laws and regulations including, but not limited to: 1) regulations promulgated by the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration; 2) the International Maritime Dangerous Goods Code; and regulations of the International Air Transport Association.

INSPECTION. Final inspection may be performed by the End User of the Products. Buyer may present all claims against the Products on behalf of the End User to the Seller.

DELAYS. Delivery dates indicated on orders are firm and must be honored. Time is of the essence of the Contract. If any delays occur, expected or not, Seller must inform Buyer of the situation and give a revised delivery date and reason for delay. In the event delivery is delayed more than thirty (30) days from the date specified on the face hereof, Buyer may: 1) cancel the Purchase Order without further liability; 2) purchase replacement Products from a Third Party; and/or 3) charge all costs and expenses resulting from the delay to Seller.

FORCE MAJEURE. Neither party shall be responsible for failure or delay due to causes beyond its control affecting the delivery of the Products. These causes shall include, but not be restricted to, fire, storm, flood, earthquake, explosion, accident, acts of any public enemy, war, rebellion, insurrection, sabotage, terrorism, epidemic, quarantine restrictions, transportation embargoes, failures or delay in transportation, fuel or energy shortages, power interruptions or failures, acts of God, acts, rules, regulations, orders or directives of any government or political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof, or the order of any court, regulatory, or arbitral body of competent jurisdiction (collectively, "Force Majeure Events"). Labor disruptions affecting Seller's work force, or those of its sub-suppliers, shall not be events of Force Majeure. In the event that a Force Majeure Event lasts for more than thirty (30) days, the party whose performance is not affected by the Force Majeure Event may cancel the Contract without penalty and seek an alternative source or customer for the Products as the case may be, upon ten (10) business days' notice. The imposition (or announcement of a potential future imposition) of a quota, new or higher import tax, tariff, tariff-rate quota, or other surcharge applicable to the Products (a "Charge") or any temporary or permanent measure by the federal or any state government of the United States (or if the United States is not the place of destination, then the government of the place of destination), whether promulgated by legislation, policy or other means, which results in: (a) an increase to Buyer in the cost of purchase; (b) Buyer's inability to claim, as a business expense deduction, its cost of imported Products; or (c) any limitation or restriction on the ability of Buyer to purchase Products, after the acceptance of the Order shall, at Buyer's option, be deemed a Force Majeure Event. Buyer shall notify Seller of its intention to exercise the option and cancel the Contract without penalty within ten (10) business days of the imposition of the Charge or measure. All such notices shall be given by electronic mail, with a confirmation copy by regular mail.

CANCELLATION/CHANGE/TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE. Buyer reserves the right, for any reason, at any time, to cancel any portion of the Purchase Order which has not been shipped or to make changes in the specifications, amount, type, etc., of the Products. Upon such cancellation or change, and subject to the other provisions hereof, Buyer shall pay Seller only the following amounts, without duplication, in final satisfaction of all obligations relating to the Purchase Order: (a) any amounts owing for conforming Products received by Buyer prior to cancellation or change and accepted in accordance with the Purchase Order; (b) the reasonable direct out-of-pocket costs incurred by Seller in connection with Products covered by the Purchase Order and not shipped prior to cancellation or change; provided that the Seller shall use its best efforts to resell or re-use Products or components not shipped; and (c) an equitable price adjustment for any changes.

ERRORS. Stenographic and clerical errors are subject to correction and Buyer shall not be bound by inadvertent mistakes.

PAYMENT TERMS. Net 30 unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order. All invoices from Seller shall include Buyer's Purchase Order number on them.

URGENT DELIVERY. If urgent delivery is needed due to delays, other than delays occasioned by the conduct of Buyer, Seller will be responsible for additional charges associated with expedited shipment of the Products being delayed.

WARRANTY. In addition to any other warranties provided by law or otherwise, Seller warrants that each Product shall: (i) be first quality, new production and conform to the Purchase Order in all respects; (ii) conform to all specifications, drawings, samples; descriptions furnished and/or specified by Buyer; (iii) be merchantable and fit for the purpose for which it is intended; and (iv) be free from all defects in design and workmanship.

Seller represents and warrants that good title to all of the Products shall be vested in Buyer, free and clear of any and all liens, encumbrances and future obligations or restrictions of any kind.

In the event of a breach of warranty, in addition to all other remedies hereunder or under applicable law or in equity, Buyer may: (i) cancel all or any portion of the Purchase Order; (ii) require the Seller to repair or replace any or all Products, at Buyer's option and at Seller's sole expense; (iii) return nonconforming Products to Seller and request that Seller investigate the nonconformity and submit an action plan to Buyer to correct the nonconformity in a timely manner, at Seller's sole cost and expense; (iv) require the Seller to pay all transportation and other charges arising from delivery, storage or return of Products; and/or (v) purchase replacement Products from a Third Party and charge the same to Seller.

Buyer is a trading company. If Buyer has made Seller aware that Buyer is not the end user of the Products and has provided Seller with a copy of the terms and conditions of Buyer's customer and its customers, including the End User (collectively, the "Customer"), Seller warrants that it is familiar with the terms and conditions of purchase of the Customer with regard to the Products, including, but not limited to the Customer's warranty and delivery requirements for the Products, and Seller shall comply with all warranty requirements imposed upon Buyer by the Customer. Whether or not such information is provided, Seller shall be liable for all charges imposed on the Buyer by the Customer on account of Seller's non-performance of its obligations to Buyer.

All warranties of Seller, express and implied, and remedies of Buyer, in this Section or elsewhere, shall survive the delivery, inspection, testing, acceptance and payment for the Products.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. Seller warrants that the Products, including all work, materials, products, services, equipment, parts, subsumed production processes, and other items provided by Seller pursuant to the Purchase Order, which are not of Buyer's design, shall be free from claims of infringement (including misappropriation) of third-party intellectual property rights and that any use or sale of such items by Buyer or any of Buyer's customers shall be free from any such claims of infringement. Seller shall indemnify and save Buyer, and its customers harmless from any and all expenses, liability, and loss of any kind (including all costs and expenses including attorneys' fees) arising out of claims, suits, or actions alleging such infringement, which claims, suits, or actions Seller hereby, agrees to defend, at Seller's expense, if requested to do so by Buyer. Intellectual Property Rights excludes all brands, trademarks, trade names, slogans and logos of Seller and Buyer unless specifically identified as a deliverable or work product of Seller pursuant to this Contract. To the extent that this Contract is issued for the creation of copyrightable works, the works will be considered "works made for hire" for Buyer. To the extent that works created for Buyer do not qualify as "works made for hire" for Buyer, Seller hereby assigns to Buyer all right, title and interest in all such copyrights. Seller grants Buyer and its Customers a royalty-free, non-exclusive, perpetual license to repair, reconstruct, remanufacture, re-flash or re-build the Products.

Upon any default hereunder, in addition to all other remedies hereunder or under applicable law or in equity, Buyer may cancel all or any part of the Purchase Order without liability except to pay the contract price for Products delivered prior to notice of cancellation, purchase replacement Products from a Third Party, and recover from Seller on demand any and all increased costs and/or other damages relating to said default.
